DC COMMUNITY HERITAGE PROJECT GRANT CONDITIONS

The grantee agrees to administer the grant in compliance with the following provisions, in addition to any special provisions incorporated in the award of the grant. Grantees should understand that acceptance of an award creates a legal duty on the part of the grantee to use the funds in accordance with the terms of the proposal and the following provisions and conditions.:

1. GENERAL GRANT PROVISIONS

A. Non-Profit Status

The grantee certifies that it is a “group” defined as “any state or other public agency, and any non-profit society, organization, institution, association, museum, or establishment in the United States, whether or not incorporated.” It is the responsibility of the grantee to notify HumanitiesDC of any changes in this status.

B. Equal Opportunity

The grantee shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment, to be employed in the performance of this agreement, with respect to his hire, tenure, terms, conditions or privileges of employment or any matter directly or indirectly related to employment.

Acceptance of this agreement signifies full compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. No person shall, on the grounds of race, color, sex, age, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination in any program or action receiving funds from HumanitiesDC.

C. Project Reporter

Grantee agrees to designate a specific person to keep a written record of project planning and activities to become the property of HumanitiesDC. This record, as well as being a narrative report of the history of the project, should include printed materials and press releases distributed to publicize the project, any materials used at the project's component meetings or events, news clippings or a record of other media coverage, and audio or video tapes (if any) made of the activity.

D. Notification of Project Activities

The Grantee agrees that the Project Director will notify HumanitiesDC office of the specific dates of all public project activities and events. Such notification should be made early enough (preferably at least two weeks before the event) to enable a HumanitiesDC representative to attend the scheduled activity.

E. Collection and Use of Information

1. In all publicity and in all productions, exhibits, displays, etc., grantee shall specify that: “Funds for the DC Community Heritage Project are provided by a partnership of HumanitiesDC and the DC Historic Preservation Office, which supports people who want to tell stories of their neighborhoods and communities by providing information, training and financial resources. This DC Community Heritage Project has been also funded in part by the US Department of the Interior, the National Park Service Historic Preservation Fund grant funds, administered by the DC Historic Preservation Office and by the DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities.

This program was supported through a Historic Preservation Fund grant administered by the National Park Service, Department of Interior. Funds were used for the identification, protection, and/or rehabilitation of historic properties and cultural resources in the District of Columbia. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the U.S. Department of the Interior prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, or disability in its federally assisted programs. If you believe that you have been discriminated against in any program, activity, or facility as described above, or if you desire further information, please write to: Office of Equal Opportunity, U.S. Department of the Interior, 1849 C Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20240.” In brochures, fliers, and announcements, HumanitiesDC shall be further identified as an affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

2. In cases where the grantee collects information from the public (as by interview or questionnaire) in connection with research for a project funded through this grant, he may not, without prior approval from HumanitiesDC, represent in any way that the information is being collected by or for a federal agency.

3. The grantee may publish the results of grant activity provided that such publications contain an acknowledgement of HumanitiesDC grant support and include in an appropriate place, a statement that the findings, conclusions, etc., do not necessarily reflect the view of HumanitiesDC, nor of the National Endowment for the Humanities. At least six (6) copies of any printed publication or products generated by the grant must be furnished to HumanitiesDC.

4. Copyright: The United States Government and HumanitiesDC reserve non-exclusive licenses to use and reproduce for government purposes, without payment, any publishable matter, including copyrighted matter, arising out of grant activities.

F. Indemnification

Grantee shall hold HumanitiesDC harmless and defend and indemnify it against all claims, actions, liability, damage, loss and expense by reason of injury or death to any person or persons or damaged property arising or alleged to have arisen from the acts or omissions of grantee, its employees, agents, and sub-contractors.

G. Modifications

Only the Executive Board of HumanitiesDC is authorized to modify any of the major terms of these conditions, including the scope of performance and the cost limitations herein established. HumanitiesDC shall not be liable for any costs incurred by grantee which are not in conformance with the grant award.

H. Project Income

If approved in advance, the grantee may earn income to support the project through registration or admission fees. Such income must be applied to the cost of the project and must be accounted for and reported to HumanitiesDC. Any project income earned after the grant period, e.g., through the sale of publications, reuse of video tapes and films, etc., must be applied to the purpose of the project with the written approval of the Council or remitted to HumanitiesDC.

I. Regrant Agreement Documents

Along with any stated Special Provisions pertaining to this grant, the proposal and budget submitted by the grantee, as amended, are attached and made a part of this agreement.

J. Termination of Grants

If the HumanitiesDC should ascertain that the general provisions or special conditions of the grant award are not being met, it will inform the grantee through the HumanitiesDC Executive Board or Council staff. Continued disregard of such notification and failure to conform to the project as approved or to HumanitiesDC guidelines can result in a termination of the grant and a further demand for restitution of HumanitiesDC funds.

2. FINANCIAL GRANT PROVISIONS

A. Accounting Records

The grantee agrees to maintain records and accounts consistent with generally accepted accounting principles, and to provide for such fiscal control as is necessary to assure proper disbursing of, and accounting for, project grant funds.

The grantee certifies that accounts and supporting documentation relating to project expenditures will be adequate to permit an accurate and expeditious audit. Any audit may be made at any time by HumanitiesDC, its designated representatives, or any applicable agency of the United States Government.

The grantee agrees to maintain records to demonstrate that matching contributions are not less than the amount indicated in the approved budget, or any revision thereof which is approved by HumanitiesDC. Grantee further agrees to secure reasonable written proof of the value of "in-kind" contributions to the project.

The grantee will maintain all such records and accounts for this project for a period of not less than three years after acceptance of its final project report, and will forward copies of such records and accounts as required by the final report to HumanitiesDC upon completion of the project.

B. Funds Disbursement and Progress Reports

1. Final Report

All grantees agree to submit a final report and product within Thirty (30) days of the termination of the grant period. All reporting and evaluation for a grant project must be completed and submitted per the grant conditions prior to any and all requests for additional funding from HumanitiesDC. Failure to comply with the requirements will disqualify the grantee from receiving future funding from HumanitiesDC. Refer to the Instructions for Administering and Reporting Your HumanitiesDC Grant, available on the HumanitiesDC website, for reporting requirements.
